

The Forlorn Hope

Newsletter of the East Anglian Branch of the Battlefields Trust

EDITION 21: WINTER 2012

Patron: Bernard Cornwell
Vice Patron: Simon Scarrow

With the recent discovery of the possible remains of Richard III, I have no hesitation in dedicating this issue to His Grace, King Richard III. Loyalty binds me.

---

The Forlorn Hope

Would anyone who wishes to receive this or any other forms, etc via email please contact me.

Telephone: 01603 664021      email: annmarie@talktalk.net

Annmarië

---

2013 AGM

Notice is hereby given that the AGM of the East Anglian Region will be held on 12th January 2013 at 14.00 at the Assembly House. Norwich.

All nominations for committee posts must be in writing and seconded.

---

Secretary's report

We find ourselves this year in a different situation. Attendances have been so low at meetings that we are making a loss which obviously cannot continue.

Please come along to the AGM and help resolve this issue. Your input is needed. Together I hope we can find solutions.

I wish you Seasons Greetings and a Happy New Year.

Annmarië

Programme for 2013

12th January 2013

AGM 14.00

(Richard III AGM 15:15)

At The Assembly House, Norwich

---

16th March 2013

Some Corner of a Familiar Field: War Graves in Norfolk and Suffolk

by Dr John Greenacre MA MCMi
MCGI

---

All meetings are held at The Assembly House Norwich starting at 14:30 and admission price is £2 unless otherwise stated.

Articles, letters, quotes, opinions, praise, corrections, reviews of books, plays and films with a historical connection, we need them all. Pass any on to Annmarie Hayek and room permitting we'll publish them.