

THREE LETTERS,

From the Right Honourable
SIR THOMAS FAIRFAX,
Lieut. Gen. CRUMWELL
and the Committee residing in the Army.

Wherein
All the Particulars of the Great Victory obtained by our Forces against His Majesties, is fully related, fought the 14 of June, 1645.

With a List of the Names of such Colonels, Captaines, Lieutenants, Ensignes, and other Officers, both of Horse and Foot there taken prisoners. And the Resolution of both Houses upon the same.

Die Lunæ, 16 June, 1645.

O Rdered by the Lords and Commons Assembled in Parliament, that these Letters, with the List of the Prisoners, be forthwith printed and published, with the Order of both Houses concerning the same.

Io. Brown. Cler. Parliament.

LONDON,
Printed for John Wright at the signe of the Kings-head in the Old-baily. 1645.

TO THE HONORABLE
WILLIAM LENTALL Esq;
 Speaker of the Honorable House of Commons.

Mr. speaker,

Esides the Generall account, I have already given, by one of my servants whom I sent up to London yesterday, I thought fit to send this bearer Mr. Bales, who may more particularly informe you. Concerning the abundant goodnesse of God to this army, and the whole Kingdome in the late victory, obtained at Naseby Field: The whole body of their foote taken and slaine, such a list of the prisoners, could be made up in this short time I have sent, the horie all quitted the field, and were pursued within three miles of Leicester: their Ammunition, Ordnance, and carriages all taken, among which there were, two Demy Cannons, a whole Culverin and a Morter peece besides lesser peeces: We intend to move to Leicester, as soone as we have taken Order with our prisoners and wounded men: all that I desire, is, that the honour of this great never to be forgotten mercy, may be given to God in an extraordinary day of thanksgiving; And that it may be improved to the good of his Church, and this kingdome: which shall be faithfully endeavoured by, Sir Harborough June 15. 1645.

Your most humble servant,

THOMAS FAIRFAX.

Major Gen. ~~Steele~~ was shot through his side: but notwithstanding he continued in the field with great resolution; And when I desired him to goe off the field. He answered, hee would not goe so long as a man would stand, still doing his Office as a valiant and wise Commander. Also Colonell ~~Baker~~, and Colonell ~~Jones~~ upon their first charge were both dangerously wounded, behaving themselves very gallantly, if I could enter into particulars; much might be spoken of the resolution and courage of many Commanders both horse and foote, in this dayes service.

Some Irish are among the prisoners as I am informed, I have not time to make inquiry into it; I desire they may be proceeded against above, according to Ordinance of Parliament.

For the Honourable William Lenthall
Speaker of the Commons House of Parliament.

SIR,

Being comanded by you to this service, I thinke my selfe bound to acquaint you with the good hand of God towards you, and us, we marched yesterday after the King who went before us from Daventry to Haverbrow, and quartered about six miles from him, this day we marched towards him, He drew out to meet us, both Armies engaged, we after three howers fight, very doubtfull, at last routed his Army, killed and tooke about five thousand, very many Officers, but of what quality we yet know not, we tooke also about two hundred Carriages all he had, and all his Guns, being twelve in number, whereof two were Demie-Cannon, two Demie-Culverins, (and I thinke) the rest Sacres, we persued the enemy from three miles short of Harbrough to nine beyond, even to fight of

of Leicester whether the King fled. Sir this is none other but the hand of God, and to him alone belongs the Glory, wherein none are to share with him, the Generall served you with all faithfullnesse and honour, and the best commendations I can give him is, that I dare say he attributes all to God, and would rather perish then assume to himselfe, which is an honest and a thriving way, and yet as much for bravery may be given to him in this action, as to a man. Honest men served you faithfully in this action, Sir they are truly, I beseech you in the name of God not to discourage them, I wish this action may beget thankfullnesse, and humility in all that are concerned in it, he that ventures his life for the liberty of his Country I wish he trust God for the liberty of his conscience, and you for the liberty he fights for, in this he rests who is,

14 June 1645
Haverbrow.

Your most humble Servant,
Oliver Cromwell.

For the Honourable William Lenthall
Esquire, Speaker to the House of Commons.

S I R,

His morning by day break we marched out of Guisborough after the Enemy, after an houres march, we discovered their Horie drawne up at Sybberscote three miles this side Harborough, an houre after their Foote appear'd, this was about eight in the morning. by ten we were dispos'd into a battalia on both sides, both sides with mighty shoutes exprest a hearty desire of fighting, having for our parts recommended our cause to Gods protection and received the word, which was

was God our Strength, theirs Quene Mary, our forlorne hopes began the play whiles both sides labour'd for the hill and wind, which in conclusion was as it were equally devided, our forlorne hope gaue back, and their right wing of Horse fell upon our left with such gallantry that ours were immediately routed aboue a thousand ran along with them but such was the courage and diuigence of the right wing back't with the Foote, that they not onely beat back the enemy from their Traine but fell in with their Foot and after two houres dispute won all the field-peices (of which some are Cannon) most of their Bad-gage, Morter peices, Boates, nine thousand Armes much powder and match. &c. And nigh foure thousand prisoners their number was about twelve thousand, some six hundered slaine, many Commanders of note, of ours not aboue one hundered, our Horse are still in pursuite and have taken many of theirs, the Standerd is ours, the Kings Wagon and many Ladies. God Almighty give us thankefull hearts for this great Victory, the most absolute as yet obtained, the Generall. Lieutenant-Generall Cromwell, and Major Generall Skippon (who is shot in the side, but not dangerous) did beyond expression gallantly, so did all our other Commanders and Souldiers. we haue lost but two Captaines, though this come late, be pleased to accept it from,

Your Honours most humble Seruants,

Nærby where the fight was this Satterday 14 June 1645.

Captaine Potter is dangerously wounded, but hopes of his recovery, so is Captaine Cook.
